

Nov 18, 1875

On Nov 18, 1875, Fender Mc Kelly led his 30 Rangers across the Rio Grande near Los Cueros going after stolen cattle. They charged into a village mistakenly thought to be the refuge of the thieves and shot down a doz. or more men caught in the streets. A large Mexican force drove the invaders back to the river, & the 2 sides exchanged fire all day. Mc Kelly refused to withdraw even when confronted with 400 troops gathering to defend Mexican sovereignty. For 2 days he held his position. only when the Mexican leader promised to turn over the stolen herd and the thieves the next day did McNelly boat his little Company back to TX. As it turned out the Mexicans turned over, only  $\frac{1}{3}$  of cattle & no bonds.